THE LATTER-DAY SAINTS' PSALMODY

A COLLECTION OF

Original and Selected Tunes

Specially Arranged for this Work, Providing Music for Every Hymn in the Latter-day
Saints' Hymn Book

FIFTH EDITION

Compilers' Preface.

THE origination (by the approval of the late President John Taylor) and completion (to the acceptance of the First Presidency of the Church) of this the largest and most important musical work yet published in Utah, has been to the undersigned a labor of love and principle. Our aim has been to present a suitable and acceptable tune to every hymn in the Latter-day Saints' Hymn Book. We have been materially aided by the contributions of those who have so readily placed their appreciated compositions at our disposal.

The original music, with some few exceptions, is the production of "our mountain home" composers.

Another feature which we feel confident will prove acceptable to many, is the presentation of a number of old and familiar tunes, which, together with the words, are associated by many with incidents of the most pleasing experience in their first acquaintance with the gospel; while to others, scenes of trial and suffering will be vividly brought to their remembrance.

That this work may be a means of still further extending a knowledge of the Gospel of Salvation; an aid to the congregations of the Saints in singing the praises of the Lord, and of assistance in their gatherings the world over, is the prayer of your brethren in the Gospel of peace.

Publishers' Preface to Third Edition.

Several additions and changes have been made in this issue of the PSALMODY, which it is believed will be appreciated by all who use it. In December, 1905, a revised edition of the Latter-day Saints' Hymn Book was published. In it a number of hymns are improved in diction, and the faulty rhythm of others is corrected, thus rendering them more musical and fitting to the tunes to which they are set. Thirteen popular hymns have also been added to the book. This edition of the PSALMODY is made to conform strictly with the newly revised Hymn Book, including music to all the added hymns, and also to three of the old hymns which were not provided with tunes in former editions of this work.

The pages of the PSALMODY in this edition are reduced in size, making the book more convenient for handling, yet leaving the print large and clear enough to be read easily.

Preface to Fifth Edition.

The popularity of this work has made it necessary to issue this fifth edition, which is essentially the same as the third and fourth editions.

This system contains the first three lines of the musical score. It features a treble and bass staff in 4/4 time with a key signature of one flat (B-flat). The lyrics are written below the staves, with line numbers 1, 2, and 3 indicating different vocal parts or verses.

Fore-most of the sons of light, Nearest the e-ter-nal throne?
 In the blood of yon-der Lamb—Blood that washes white as snow.

They have all their suff-'rings past, Hunger now and thirst no more;

This system contains the second and third lines of the musical score. It continues the melody and accompaniment from the first system, with lyrics written below the staves.

These are they that bore the cross, No-bly for their mas-ter stood,
 There-fore are they next the throne—Serve their mak-er day and night:

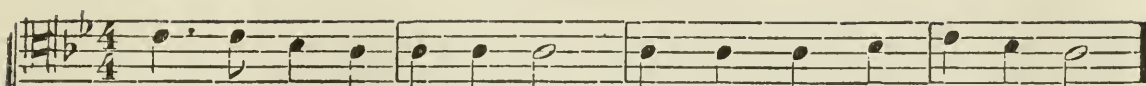

p No ex-cess-ive heat they feel From the sun's di-rect-er ray;

This system contains the third and fourth lines of the musical score. The fourth line begins with a piano (p) dynamic marking. The lyrics continue below the staves.

Suff-'rers in his righteous cause, Foll'wers of the dy-ing God.
 God re-sides a-mong his own—God doth in his Saints de-light, f In a mild-er clime they dwell—Re-gion of e-ter-nal day.

This system contains the fourth and fifth lines of the musical score. The fifth line begins with a forte (f) dynamic marking. The score concludes with a double bar line.

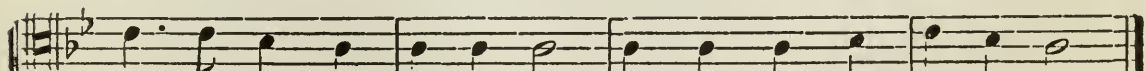

1. Where the voice of friendship's heard, Sounding like a sweet-toned bird;
2. Where the wear-y find a home; Where the wild deer fear-less roam;

3. Where the tem-ple - block is laid; Where no foe shall e'er in - vade;

Where the mel - low fruit-tree grows; Where the gold - en har - vest flows;
Where the Priesthood's pow'r shall claim All that heav'n and earth can name;

Where fond ac - tions speak the soul; Where true love doth all con - trol;
Where the bee, the grape and kine Yield their hon - ey, milk and wine;
Where the judge by jus - tice rules; Where the couns'llors are not fools;

Where the sons of God a - gree, There may all the faith-ful be.
Where the curse from earth shall flee, There may all the faith-ful be.
Where the poor shall iudg-ment see, There may all the faith-ful be.
